[Meeting Time/Place]

TBD (regular weekly lessons will be scheduled at the beginning of each semester).

[Required Attendance Outside of Scheduled Weekly Lesson]

Composition majors are required to attend all four Composition Forum meetings = 01/27, 02/24, 03/24, 04/28 (all in Alinea @ 8pm) and the Composition Area Concert 03/29 7:30pm in Meadows Recital Hall. Non-composition majors are not required to attend any events outside of scheduled weekly lessons.

[Course Objective]

Create an original composition complete with edited score and parts (if applicable). I will assign projects as seen fit to meet this goal. Projects can range from reading and listening assignments, to creativity building exercises. You may also be required to get your piece performed (depending on your portfolio needs).

[Grading] Engage with others' work. Take risks. Search and be curious.

50% Attendance

Non-composition majors = weekly lessons only

Composition Majors = weekly lessons, 4 Comp Forums, and 1 Comp Concert

50% Projects and Original Composition assignment(s)

A = 90-100	B = 83-86	C+ = 77-79	C- = 70-72
B+ = 87-89	B- = 80-82	C = 73-76	F = 0-69

[Attendance]

The following is straight from the School of Music Undergraduate Handbook (I made the last sentence red):

School of Music policy requires that to earn credit in a course a student must be officially enrolled by the end of the second full week of the semester and attend at least 75% of all class meetings. Faculty members may establish additional attendance requirements as outlined in course syllabi. Any student who is not present for at least 75% of the scheduled class sessions for any course will automatically receive a grade of "F" in the course. Any University-related activity necessitating an absence from class will count as an absence when determining whether a student has attended the required 75% of class meetings.

[Academic Success]

We as faculty members have high academic expectations of you and believe every student who has been admitted to Baylor can be successful. I am a vigilant professor and will notice if you are struggling in my course. If your academic performance in this class is substandard, I will submit an Academic Progress Report to the Success Center during the sixth week of the semester. I will work to help you get the help you need to learn more fully, and I can assist you in finding the resources you need beyond my course. Familiarize yourself with the culture of success we have at Baylor by stopping by the Paul L. Foster Success Center in Sid Richardson or by going to: <http://www.baylor.edu/successcenter/>. Even if you don't need help, you can get involved by tutoring other students in the future or by telling a hall mate how and where to get help.

[Academic Integrity]

Plagiarism or any form of cheating involves a breach of student-teacher trust. This means that any work submitted under your name is expected to be your own, neither composed by anyone else as a whole or in part, nor handed over to another person for complete or partial revision. Be sure to document all ideas that are not your own. Instances of plagiarism or any other act of academic dishonesty will be reported to the Honor Council and may result in failure of the course. Not understanding plagiarism is not an excuse. As a Baylor student, I expect you to be intimately familiar with the Honor Code at: <http://www.baylor.edu/honorcode/>

[Students Needing Accommodations]

Any student who needs academic accommodations related to a documented disability should inform me immediately at the beginning of the semester. You are required to obtain appropriate documentation and information regarding accommodations from the Office of Access and Learning Accommodation (OALA). Contact Information: (254) 710-3605 - Paul L. Foster Success Center, 1st floor on the East Wing of Sid Richardson.
